See the Schedule-at-a Glance for class times and sequence at www.rmla.org.

D. PRESENTATION OUTLINE, NEWSWORTHY ARTICLES, and/or HANDOUTS

RMLA strongly encourages you to provide an outline of your presentation to your audience/students. If you have newsworthy articles or appropriate handouts to supplement your discussion, please plan to bring three-hole punched copies to your presentation or send the original to RMLA for reproduction by Friday April 26, 2019.

E. AUDIO/VISUAL EQUIPMENT NEEDS (Please place an “X” by equipment needed)

(All rooms are supplied with a projection screen and a Flip Chart display easel)

VIDEO EQUIPMENT

- Monitor x _____
 DVD Player

OTHER: _____

COMPUTER SCREEN PROJECTOR

- I will bring my LCD Projector
 I need a LCD Projector

Speakers should plan to bring their own projector to assure that your laptop screen resolution matches the projector resolution. We have had computability problems between a presenter’s computer using a high screen resolution and the LCD projector provided causing the PowerPoint presentation not to function properly, thus hampering the class.

The room setup for your presentation will be a combination CLASSROOM / THEATER STYLE.

SPECIAL REQUESTS: _____

F. BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

Please write down, or attach, a brief biography on yourself. This information may be used in the Conference Brochure, the Conference Notebook and for your introduction to your audience.

RMLA will acknowledge receipt of a proposed class. A Speaker Agreement Form will be sent out around the beginning of March 2018 to confirm your class and time when the final schedule of classes is arraigned.

If you have any questions concerning the RMLA conference or require additional information on classes or presentations, please contact Mike Lane as listed below.

It is requested that the MS-Word form be used and returned as an attachment to an e-mail so that the information can be transferred directly to the conference database without retyping.
